CERTAIN RELATIONSHIPS AND RELATED TRANSACTIONS

Historically, we have reviewed potential related party transactions on a case-by-case basis. On March 8, 2007 the Board approved a "Related Party Transaction Policy and Procedures." Under the policy and procedures, the audit committee of the Board, or alternatively, those members of the Board who are disinterested, shall review the material facts of specified transactions for approval or disapproval, taking into account, among other factors that they deem appropriate, the extent of the related person's interest in the transaction and whether the transaction is fair to Leap and is in, or is not inconsistent with, the best interests of Leap and its stockholders. Transactions to be reviewed under the policy and procedures include transactions, arrangements or relationships (including any indebtedness or guarantee of indebtedness) in which (1) the aggregate amount involved will or may be expected to exceed $120,000 in any calendar year, (2) Leap or any of its subsidiaries is a participant, and (3) any (a) executive officer, director or nominee for election as a director, (b) greater than 5 percent beneficial owner of our common stock, or (c) immediate family member, of the persons referred to in clauses (a) and (b), has or will have a direct or indirect material interest (other than solely as a result of being a director or a less than 10 percent beneficial owner of another entity). Terms of director and officer compensation that are disclosed in proxy statements such as this document or that are approved by the Board or Compensation Committee and are not required to be disclosed in our proxy statement, and transactions where all holders of our common stock receive the same benefit on a pro rata basis, are not subject to review under the policy and procedures.

For a description of various transactions between Leap and certain affiliates of Dr. Mark H. Rachesky, our Chairman of the Board, and Mr. James D. Dondero, a director of Leap and the Chairman of Leap's Compensation Committee, see "Compensation Committee Interlocks And Insider Participation" set forth above in this proxy statement.

STOCKHOLDER PROPOSALS

To be included in our proxy statement, proposals of stockholders that are intended to be presented at our 2008 annual meeting must be received no later than December 4, 2007 and must satisfy the conditions established by the SEC for such proposals. However, if Leap changes the date of its 2008 annual meeting by more than thirty days from the anniversary date of the 2007 Annual Meeting, the deadline for proposals that stockholders wish to include in the proxy statement for the 2008 annual meeting will be a reasonable time before we begin to print and mail the proxy materials for that meeting.

A stockholder proposal that is not included in our proxy statement for the 2008 annual meeting will be ineligible for presentation at the meeting unless the stockholder gives timely notice of the proposal in writing to and otherwise complies with the provisions of our Bylaws. For a proposal to be timely, Article II, Section 8 of Leap's Amended and Restated Bylaws provides that we must have received the stockholder's notice not less than seventy days nor more than ninety days prior to the anniversary of our annual meeting, meaning between February 17, 2008 and March 8, 2008. In the event that the 2008 annual meeting is advanced by more than twenty days or delayed by more than seventy days from the anniversary date of the 2007 annual meeting, proposals that stockholders wish to present at the 2008 annual meeting must be received by Leap no earlier than the ninetieth day prior to the date of the 2008 annual meeting, nor later than the later of the seventieth day prior to such annual meeting date, or the date which is ten days after the day on which public announcement of the date of such meeting is first made.
